Brief details:

The B'Festival is an annual event run for 13-19 year olds at the Arena in Baldock. This years event focuses on the message of ' be safe'. The Fire service and Road Safety will be attending the event to raise awareness of driver and pedestrian safety while the sexual health bus will also be attending. The event runs between 2pm and 10pm and also consists of performances of live music, sporting activities and a number of community stalls. The organisers of B'Festival are approaching the Area Committee for funding of £1000 to purchase a traffic management solution to assist young people leaving the venue late at night. This will include temporary traffic lights and signage to safeguard children leaving the event. The total cost of running the event is £15435

Matched / linked funding: £14,435

Funder: Herts County Council Big Spend

Discretionary rate relief: £0

Funder: HCC Extended Schools Coordinator

Comments from Development Officer:

This is a worthwhile event that helps to bring young people from the community together. As well as providing entertainment this event will also help to raise the awareness of young people about the dangers of speed and drink driving as well as raising awareness around sexual health. This event is expected to reach out to a target audience of between 700-1000. The event is criteria compliant.

Amount recommended: £1,000
