Comments from Development Officer:

Toque Tambor are a well known band in Hitchin appearing at ROTW as well as other events. They teach and perform Brazilian Carnival music and have a wide cross section of the Community participating from the young through to the elderly. They are seeking funding from other funders but if unsuccessful are still in a position with funding from Hitchin Area Committee to put on a quality event. If the Rotary Clubs fail to get the road closures they are seeking Toque tambor will still put on a parade/procession in the Town Centre. They also hope to get local people to parade in costume supplied from a professional carnival company. These people will attend classes in street entertainment and how to use their chosen costume.

Amount recommended: £1,500
