Brief details:

Hitchin Youth Allotment (HiYA) is a small youth project resource based at Old Hale Way allotment site where children, along with their parents, youth leaders or teachers, can learn about growing fruit and vegetables and get involved in a really hands on way. It is not a club in itself but a resource that will be managed by Hitchin Allotment Association (HAA) for existing clubs to use on a regular and structured basis and for schools. They are seeking funds to assist in the set up.

HiYA established in November 2016 to start preparation work. The plot will begin actively in March 2017. HAA has been running for many years, an association for the benefit of Hitchin allotmenters. HiYA is an initial outreach project.
