

TITLE OF REPORT: OPTIONS OPEN TO COMMITTEE HAVING CONSIDERED THE CALL-IN

The following options are open to the Committee:

- If, having considered the decisions(s), the Committee is still concerned about it, then it may refer it back to the decision making body (Cabinet) for reconsideration, setting out in writing the nature of its concerns; or refer the matter to Full Council *. If referred to the decision maker (Cabinet) they shall then reconsider within a further twenty clear working days, amending the decision or not, before adopting a final decision (Paragraph 6.3.11(v) of the Constitution); OR
- If, having considered the decision(s), the Committee decides not refer the matter back to the decision making person (Cabinet), the decision shall take effect on the date of the Committee meeting (Paragraph 6.3.11(vi) of the Constitution).
- * If the matter is referred to Full Council and the Council does not object to the decision(s) which have been made, then no further action is necessary and the decision(s) will be effective on the date of the Council meeting.

However, if the Council does object, it has no power to make decisions in respect of an Executive Decision, unless it is contrary to the Policy Framework, or contrary to or not wholly consistent with the Budget. If that is the case, the Council will refer any decisions to which it objects back to the decision making person (Cabinet), together with the Council's views on the decision. That decision making body (Cabinet) shall choose whether to amend the decision or not before reaching a final decision and implementing it (Paragraph 6.3.11(vii) of the Constitution).
