3. Summary of application: Local 'Learning by Doing' classes

Name of organisation: Young Enterprise

Sum requested: £1,000

Total project cost: £0

Brief details:

Young Enterprise is a national charity founded in 1962. The current application is for £1000 towards "primary programmes for students from year 1 through to year 6, and also a 'real' company with students from year 10 onwards at The Meridian, and day events at the middle schools ... All primary students will begin to understand all about themselves, families, communities, cities, nationwide and the world. Also company programme and day-event students are introduced to the idea of social responsibilities and world-wide issues as well as local one."

Comments from Development Officer:

The application is eligible for support. The cost/head of Primary classes is £10, and of one-day events is £12. The charity's input to the Company Programme is £1,200. Match-funding will be sought from schools and local businesses.

When first put forward in May this year there was some lack of clarity about the proportion of expenditure on the schools, but it is now clear that £750 will be spent at Meridian and £250 at Barley.

CDO supports the application.

Amount recommended: £1,000
