Comments from Community Officer:

Make Lunch Royston was established in 2015 and has received funding for room hire fees previously from the Royston & District Area Committee. Make Lunch Royston enables children who are from disadvantaged families in Royston to receive a free hot meal during the school holidays when they are not getting them at their schools during term time. It is aimed at children between the ages of 4 and 13 years. The funding requested will cover room hire charges for the whole 2016 programme. Make Lunch Royston have obtained match funding for the other elements of the project which include equipment costs, food costs, training costs and legal costs. The application is criteria compliant and the officer recommendation is an award of £700.

Amount recommended: £700
