Comments from Communityt Officer:

Corvus Cornix Basketball Club was set up in 2011.

It is a club for young people and has 80 members. Funding will assist with training /coaching costs and venue hire costs.

The sessions will be held at Royston Leisure Centre on 4 Sunday afternoons in October, November, February and March.

Basketball is a growing sport in Roytson and is played indoors.

Only the leisure centre has the capacity for running weekend sessions locally

The application is criteria complaint and the group has more than 50% match funding in place.

This is only the 2nd time that the group has applied to the Committee for funding, the 1st time being in 2011, when the club was first created.

The officer recommendation is an award of £200.

Amount recommended: £200
