Comments from Development Officer:

The Rotary Club of Royston is a registered charity and was set up in 1962. The group runs 3 key events a year with funds generated going to local good causes /charities. As well as being good community events, the Royston kite Festival is also a key event in the Royston Calendar and helps drive footfall for the town. The group has match funding in place and the application is criteria compliant.

The officer recommendation is an award of £1,000.

Amount recommended: £1,000
